

Scavenger Hunt: The Horse and His Boy

Learn from Bree's mistake: you don't need to leave home to find adventure! Look for these items and circle them on the page if you find them. Items like toys or decorations count, but licensed Narnia products (such as official toys) or Narnian crafts (such as a character drawing) don't. Be creative!

If you find extra items from The Horse and His Boy, write them down in the blanks!

Tashbaan bonus:

One of the wonderful things Shasta ate is a dessert called "fool", and you can make your own! With an adult's help, make compote (fruit sauce). On a stove at medium heat, mix together ½ pound of any fruit (fresh or frozen), 1 tbsp butter, and either 2 tbsp honey OR 1 tbsp each sugar and lemon juice; stir till it becomes a sauce. Let it cool, then layer it with whipped cream in a bowl.

Anvard bonus:

Play a game of Hang Rabadash (Hangman) using words from The Horse and His Boy!
